

Drop-off in Teague . . . Food drive needs donations

Donations are needed to help feed the hungry at this year's annual Central Texas Food Drive, set Nov. 20.

Receiving stations are set in various cities to accept donations of food and money—in Freestone county, donations can be made at The Lord's Community Storehouse at 402 Main Street in Teague. The Lord's Storehouse was established Sept. 4, 1997 and helps to feed on average 400 people each month, including people devastated by unexpected illness, those who have lost jobs, people whose homes have burnt, people with disabilities, single mothers, and also some who have need of one-time emergency help.

The food bank has been commended repeatedly by chambers of commerce, state of Texas House of Representatives, and the Capital Area Food Bank of Texas for being most innovative in its use of resources.

Volunteer efforts have included competitions between school and church classes, bicycle rides, and collecting silver change.

Schools, businesses and organizations can participate in the effort.

Because of a partnership with Capital Food Bank, food can be purchased for pennies on the dollar.

Representative Ernest Busby of Teague says the food drive of 2008 made history. "For 2009 we want to kick it up a notch and intensify our efforts, and surpass last year's accomplishments."

The Nov. 20 event will host a kickoff featuring Waco television station

KWTV, channel 10, the National Guard, HEB Grocery Stores and the Boy Scouts.
