Break-In At Firm is Solved

It all started about 8 p.m. Monday and culminated about 10 p.m. The burglary was committed, the suspects caught and confessions obtained all within the span of a 2-hour period.

A witness was driving past Living Waters Christian Inspirations across from city hall on South Mount when they noticed two hands on top of the counter.

The witness immediately called the police and officer Doyle Terry was dispatched.

Retired After 39 Years

He was honored with a .22 pistol and a crosstitched bird dog picture from his employer Lyle Red, and his fellow workers, who will all miss him.

Council Denies Annexations

Fairfield city council members stopped short of annexing more than 100 acres of land into city limits—the property is in three separate tracts—until the areas are platted and utility and street improvements are addressed.

Several months ago city workers discovered that several water and sewer taps had illegally been made at property in east Fairfield. The illegal taps were discovered when a water main was being run and an unmarked water line was cut.

TCA offers safety video . . . Internet can be dangerous

While the internet contains a wealth of educational and social opportunities for kids, the Texas Cable Industry has teamed up with the Attorney General's office to educate parents and children about the dangers posed by internet predators.

The "On-Demand" Cyber Safety Video is part of cable's continued commitment to help parents manage the media coming into their home—whether over television or the internet—and to ensure its appropriateness for children.

Texas cable operators have made the video available to their subscribers through on-demand cable services across Texas. Texans with this service can access programs at their convenience and pause, rewind and fast forward them. Texas cable customers should check their local listings or call their cable provider for more details. In addition to being accessible through cable networks' on-demand services, the video is available on the attorney general's website, located at www.texasattorneygeneral.gov.

Since 2003 the attorney general's Fugitive Unit and the Cyber Crimes Unit, which protects children from online sexual exploitation, have arrested 33 men for using the internet and maintaining online social networking accounts in violation of their parole.

Three main risks associated with all connected technology are:

Inappropriate Contact: Teach kids how to recognize and protect themselves against contact with cyber-bullies, hackers, phishers and predators. People aren't always who they say they are. Teach kids to keep away from internet strangers: the internet is a place to enhance existing relationships, not a place to meet new people.

Inappropriate Content: This includes both content that is viewed and content that is uploaded by kids. Help kids understand that the internet is forever everything they post online is tracked and stored and will follow them to future job interviews and college entrance interviews.

Inappropriate Conduct: Because the web environ-
